Revolutionary War Patriots Buried in Ohio , Updated 9/27/19

The records contained in this Roster were begun with those presented by the Daughters of the American Revolution and the WPA to the State of Ohio as a tribute of respect to the hardy pioneers who transplanted to this State the noble ideals for which they fought from 1775 to 1783, and who now sleep the last sleep beneath its soil, in 1929. They were amended by other sources described in the bibliography at the end of these records and data posted on the National Society of the Sons of the American Revolution, Patriot & Grave Index website. Most have been vetted by the National Sons of the American Revolution's Patriot Grave Registry and assigned a unique "P" number.

Edited by Ohio Society Graves Committee Chairman, Michael B. Gunn, & Vice Chairman, Michael Blum, beginning 2015. We expect to gather about 7000 Patriots who were buried in the State of Ohio.

Subsequent additions were made to the data from research performed by various Chapters of SAR in Ohio utilizing references listed in the bibliography listed at the back of the presentation. Those entries may be identified by longitude/latitude listed in the header. We ask Ohio Society Members to encourage search for Patriots buried in the 9 Counties not yet researched, so we may have a more complete Registry of our States' Revolutionary Patriots. ED.

These are the 88 Ohio Counties Researched & 86 Listed in the OHSSAR Grave Registry to date with the number of patriots in each listed.

ALLEN, ADAM, (Fayette County) [39.610759 -83.590533]

Br 1754, Pennsylvania. Served as a Private, Volunteered from PA, later Washington's Aide and at the Battles of Monmouth and Branywine. He Married 1) Elizabeth Kyger, 2) Nancy Gardner; Children: Elizabeth, William b. 1808, Adam, Ethan, Aaron b. 1818, Betsy, Elijah b. 1804, and Sarah b. 1817. At the close of the war he went to the state of Kentucky where he ran the Upper and Lower Blue Lick Salt Works. Here, we are told, may be seen a few mementoes and personal possessions that belonged to Adam Allen. But he must have farmed too; and to prove that other records exist: Henry Storm, William Weaver and Henry Weaver of Mason County, Kentucky, leased the south end of James Ralph's plantation "to cleare and improve as the' see fit" and to have six crops from the land. Then Henry Weaver and Henry Storm, restless adventurers, pushed on to Ohio, but not without assigning their lease to William Weaver and Adam Allen. The date when Henry Weaver and Henry Storm left Kentucky appears to have been near 27 January 1796. Also it would appear that William Weaver fulfilled the terms of the lease, a matter of a few years, and then came to Ohio to what is now Clark County, where he took up 100 Acres of land in Section 17, Town 4, Range 10. His land- lord was William Ross Jr. and his witness to the transaction was Elijah Weaver, known to be William's son. The date was 24 December 1806. Adam Allen appeared to move with the Weaver families. It was John Grover of Mason County, Kentucky, who entered into an agreement with Henry Miller of the state of Ohio and county of Champaign (land now in Clark County) for a term of four years for land in Section 15 Range 10 T 4. The date was 17 August 1807. This lease was signed over almost immediately (31 August 1807) to Adam Allen who added his mark on the reverse side with the statement: "I Do agree to Discharge the within note August the 31, 1807. The witnesses were Elijah Weaver and Christopher (X) Weaver. The lot upon which he was to live contained twenty acres and was in the vicinity of William Weaver's 100 acres.

We hear of him next during the War of 1812 when he undertook to organize a company. When they reached Detroit, however, hostilities had ceased. He went, then, to Fayette County where he settled the town of Octa.
He Died on Aug 27, 1851, near Milledgeville, OH and Buried at Coons or Koontz Cemetery, Milledgeville, Jeffersonville, OH 43128. "Adam Allen a soldier of Revolution, entering Army of Washington in 1776. Fought at Monmouth and Brandywine." GM by family, in 1852. A farmer. Although Adam Allen belongs in Fayette County, his descendants in Clark County are pleased to record his sojourn of several years in the latter county.

In 1817 he purchased one thousand acres in Paris Township, Union County, Ohio for the price of two dollars per acre. He moved to that land in 1817 bringing with him six sons --- John, Andrew, Moses, Frederick , Jeremiah, and Abraham Jr. In 1820, Abraham enticed Henry to join the rest of the family in Union County. Abraham gave Henry 100 acres and the site for a mill on Mill Creek. Henry built a sawmill in 1822 and added a grist mil l in 1825. Abraham built his log cabin on a hill. To each son he gave 100 acres of land. They had few, if any, neighbors, but formed quite a colony themselves. They were a rugged, hardy people, fully fitted to cope with the difficulties and endure the hardships of their wilderness homes. They were religious, frugal and industrious, and soon had fruitful farms, while on all sides for miles was deep, dense forest. Abraham Amrine, Sr., died November 14, 1849, at the ripe old age of eighty-eight years. His wife Mary had preceded him. She died in September, 1823, only six years after their removal here, at the age of sixty-three years. In 1817 he purchased one thousand acres in Paris Township, Union County, Ohio for the price of two dollars per acre. He moved to that land in 1817 bringing with him six sons --- John, Andrew, Moses, Frederick , Jeremiah, and Abraham Jr. In 1820, Abraham enticed Henry to join the rest of the family in Union County. Abraham gave Henry 100 acres and the site for a mill on Mill Creek. Henry built a sawmill in 1822 and added a grist mil l in 1825. Abraham built his log cabin on a hill. To each son he gave 100 acres of land. They had few, if any, neighbors, but formed quite a colony themselves. They were a rugged, hardy people, fully fitted to cope with the difficulties and endure the hardships of their wilderness homes. They were religious, frugal and industrious, and soon had fruitful farms, while on all sides for miles was deep, dense forest. Abraham Amrine, Sr., died November 14, 1849, at the ripe old age of eighty-eight years. His wife Mary had preceded him. The first Presbyterian meetings held in Wells Township were at the houses of Messrs. Armstrong and Sprague about the year 1800. After that they held meetings in a tent, from which the first house of worship to the name of "Tent Church." It was afterwards called Centre, from a town plat subsequently laid out, although the church, hotel and a blacksmith shop were as far as the town ever developed. It was about midway between Warrenton, Smithfield and Mt. Pleasant, and several annual musters were held on the site of the embryo village. A Scotchman named Robinson was the first minister of whom there is any account, neither is there any record of the erection of the first building. The first person buried in the graveyard was John Armstrong, on July 16, 1810, and the deed for the land was made in 1826 by John Jackson to the trustees. This cemetery should not be confused with the other "Sugar Creek Baptist Chuch Cemetery" a short distance away in Washington Court House. The first recorded meeting of the Sugar Creek Baptists (now Centerville Baptist Church) was November 2, 1799. In 1802, property was purchased from Aaron Nutt and by 1803 a meeting house was erected on the west side of the cemetery. Early residents traveled to the church on trails which were blazed through the wilderness from settlements five miles away. On July 4, 1807, the church trustees appointed Benjamin Robbins and Whitely Hatfield "to lay off a burial ground in proper manner." Additions to the cemetery continued until 1868, which extended the cemetery to its present boundaries. He died in 1845 and buried at the Painter-Stuckey Cemetery, Fayette County, OH. In "Bender-Bainter-Painter Smith and the Allied Families of Phillipson-Marino-Alioto" by Joseph Linn Marino, it is stated that Henry Painter was born Johann Heinrich Bender and that he joined the German Regiment at age 17. However, the pension application of one Henry Painter in Nelson County Virginia makes it abundantly clear that he was the Henry Bender who served in the German Battalion under Colonel Weltner. The plaque, it seems, was placed in error. The only proof we have of his service in the Revolutionary War is by bios written about his children and grandchildren stating that their ancestor Henry Painter was a soldier in the War of Revolution. As of 2016, DNA testing seems to have proven he was not the son of Johann Georg Bender from Mount Joy Township, Lancaster, PA. Research on this is still pending. He married Adria Ann Britten (1758-1840); children: John 1781, William, Nicholas, Abram b. 1789, Mary, David and Isaac b. 1798. Of him it is known that in early manhood (1760) he emigrated from his native land to the then inhospitable shores of the New World, and located in New Jersey previous to the breaking out of the Revolutionary War. Himself being imbued with the spirit that characterized the French under the leadership of the immortal Lafayette, he took up arms against the minions of George the Third, and in defense of the home and liberties of the oppressed Colonists fought in the battles and shared the hardships of those trying days. At the Battle of Bunker Hill he bore aloft the colors of the regiment, and at Yorktown he was one of Washington's own body-guards. At Yorktown he received wounds from which he never recovered, and which cause his death years later. After the close of the war he married Adria Ann Britton, of his adopted state,who was born a native of Holland and was brought by her parents to America during her infancy. In a short time they moved to Ligonier Valley, Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania,where seven children were born. In 1816, following the Star of the West, William Bennet and family, excepting his sons, John and Abram, who remained in Pennsylvania, emigrated to Ohio, settling in Section 33, Turtle Creek township, Warren County, Ohio. He Died on September 13, 1828 buried in Rose Hill Cemetery, 379 Mason Montgomery Road, Mason, Ohio, 45040, Interment # 881 in Sec 1 lot 119 [removed from Unity Graveyard]. BLAIR, JAMES (Clark County) [39.908 -83.784]

Born in 1763. He enlisted February 1781 in the 2nd New Hampshire Regiment 5th Company commanded by Colonel George Reid, he was in no battles with the British Troops as the regiment which he belonged to was on duty up the Hudson and Mohawk Rivers for the first two years, and last year was spent in General George Washington's Guard, he was discharged in the state of New York in December, 1783. He married Molly __ (1765-_) ; children: Mary Ann, and several sons.
In his application for pension February 7, 1818, in Waterford, Erie County, Pennsylvania, he stated he moved from Vermont to Erie County, Pa., in 1816 on his way to Ohio; that his sons built a house there (Waterford) and moved his family into it; further that his oldest son went down into the state of Ohio. Then on June 16, 1833, James Blair applied for his pension to be transferred to Geauga County and then on March 11, 1841, he again applied for a transfer to Clark County. On August 9, 1820, James Blair, age 57, stated that he is by occupation a tiller of the ground but being afflicted with a disease for many years he has been unable to do anything to support himself or his family. At this time his family consisted of his wife Molly, age 55 years old, very infirm, and a daughter Mary Ann, age 13, and healthy. He writes about his sons, the oldest being 21 but there is no mention of their names.
On February 28, 1848, James requested that his pension be transferred from the state of Ohio in which he has been living to the state of Pennsylvania in which he now resides with his grandson. This request was petitioned in the state of Pennsylvania, Erie County and witnessed by George Kellogg, Justice of the Peace of said county.
In the Springfield, Ohio Republic newspaper on Friday, March 13, 1840, was an article that read, "Lecture and reading of the Scriptures at the Court House Sunday 22nd by an old Revolutionary War Soldier, James Blair."
He died 1848 and burial is unknown. Military Records and Pension Application #42621 (National Archives); D.A.R. Roster II page 61; Springfield Republic Newspaper of March 13, 1840. SAR Ancestor # P-115763. Gravesite unknown

BOGGS, JAMES (Harrison County) [40.1818 -81.1729]

Born in 1764 in Frederick County, Virginia to parents John and Jane Irwin Boggs. He served as a defender of Fort Henry during the 3rd attack on September 11, 1782 as did his sister Lydia. He lived in Ohio County, Virginia during the Revolutionary War.
On January 28, 1792 Joseph Boggs was with a group of hunters in Indian Country, including James and Alexander Mitchell, Joseph Niggs, Thomas Barr, Thomas Richards, and others. They crossed the Ohio River, went up the Short Creek to a branch of the Stillwater. As they lay around a campfire ,Indians fore up from the creek and fired into their midst. James Boggs was shot through hips with a large musket ball. The rest of the party escaped, but James was killed and scalped. When they returned from Ft. Henry to bury his body, the ground was so frozen that the men could only bury him in a shallow grave and the animals dug up the body. There is an oak tree very close to where the spring near the grave by his grave is located and this branch of the Stillwater River is today called the Boggs Fork of the Stillwater River. It flows from Athens Township to Piedmont, Ohio. From: Willis De Hass, History of the Early Settlement and Indian Wars of Western Virginia. (Wheeling: H. Hoblitzel, 1851) p. 281. James died on January 28, 1791 at 27 years an burial site is not precisely known.

BOLTENHOUSE, JOHN (Clark County) [39.923778 -84.029235]

Born in 1753. He enlisted about September 1, 1777 in Morris County, New Jersey, as a private in the company commanded by Captain Thompson in a Regiment of Horse from Virginia in the service of the Continental Establishment commanded by Col. Bland and he continued to serve this company for some time. He took sick at E and remained there about two months until he recovered. When returning home he came across a Regiment of Horse under the command of Gen. Sumpter near the Turkey Seedyford on the Catawba River. He joined this Regt. in the Company commanded by Capt. B---ford and remained here until sometime in the month of August 1780 when he was made prisoner at Rockyford about 8 miles from Compton by Col. Tarlton. An order was sent by Col. Tarlton to Boothe Boot Co. of pro- visions to give John a parole which he received and then returned home. He was in the battles of Short Hills, Brandywine and Germantown. He married _____ (1772-_); children: Henry, Abraham, and others. In Butler County, Ohio, Mathias Roll and in Hamilton County, Ohio, Abraham Roll each stated they were raised from boyhood in the same neighborhood of Morris County, New Jersey, with John Boltenhouse. Both Mathias and Abraham Roll knew that John served in the Revolutionary War on the Continental Establishment two years after his enlistment because they were in the service at this time. They lost track of him when his regi- ment was sent southward but both were certain that he did not return to his native state until after the conclusion of peace in 1783.
At the age of 59 years he applied for his pension on August 7, 1820, in Miami County, Ohio. In his application he lists his property as one horse, one colt, one cow, one heifer, two calves, three hogs, twelve pigs, four sheep, one com plow, one wooden harrow, two oxen, two hoes, one hand saw, two apugers, one drawing knife, two tea cups, four saucers, four plates, and one table. The total value of his property was $80.00. He also states that he owed to William Ryan $14.17, Asa Common $12.00, Asoph Common $1.25 and J. Davis $5.00. He stated that he is by occupation a farmer but unable to perform more than half a days labor due to a soreness in one of his legs, and but one eye with which he can see.
His family consisted of his wife aged 47 years who is afflicted with rheumatism which deprives her of her rest a great part of the time. One of his sons, Henry, age 17 years who has a failing in one of his legs which renders him incapable of laboring for three or four days at a time or even a week or more. His other son, Abraham, age 12 years has a permanent weakening in one of his wrists which renders him unable to hold anything of any weight in that hand. Due to this he is not able to be of any service to his father.
His applicaion for pension was approved and issued on the 22nd of December, 1824, in Miami County, Ohio S42630. He died July 31, 1825 in the 72nd year of his age. He is buried in New Carlisle Cemetery, Bethel Twp., Clark County, Ohio. National Archives Pension #S42630; Cemetery Inscription; D.A.R. Roster II page 63. Revolutionary War Graves Register. Clovis H. BOOSINGER (BUESSINGER), CONRAD (Summit County) [41.06777 -81.42500]

Born in 1752. He served as a Corporal with Pennsylvania in the Revolutionary War. He married Catherine Barbara Yancer (1753-1841); children: Barbara, Matilda 'Tilly', Catharine, Christina, Epha, George, John, Polly, Christina 'Teney', Conrad, Sarah 'Sally', Susan, Rachel and Jacob b. 1797. C.C.Bronson, the noted Tallmadge historian, wrote in his notes that Conrad was born on the "Susquehanna about 1752". According to family folklore, Conrad was probably the eldest son of Johannes Buessinger. If Conrad were living today, people would say he was 'Pennsylvania Dutch'. The man who many historians believe was Conrad's father, Johannes Buessinger, boarded the ship Harle in Rotterdam, Germany when he was single, twenty-five and a Palatine. The ship Harle reached Philadelphia, Pennsylvania on September 1, 1736.
During the mid-1750s an Indian conflict that began with the 'Walking Purchase' escalated when the French and Indian War started. In Europe, the war was better known as the Seven Years War. In America, this war pitted the French and Indians against the English colonists. In an attempt to defend themselves, the English colonists built a series of forts along the Blue Mountains between the Delaware and Susquehanna Rivers. It was during an Indian raid above the fort at Allemingle near present day Albany that Colonel Weiser tried to give some assistance to the English settlers. He gathered Johannes Buessinger along with other volunteers from the Weisenberg Township and marched to where the raid was taking place. After the skirmish, Colonel Weiser wrote a note in his journal dated January 4, 1756, that the Indians had killed three of his men including our Johannes at 'John Evert's place'. Conrad Buessinger was probably raised near the Weisenberg Township in Lehigh County, Pennsylvania (a Pennsylvania Dutch community). Even as late as 1900, German was the only language spoken at the only two schools in Weisenberg. Perhaps that was why Conrad, even as an adult, spoke with a heavy German accent. Conrad was a devout Lutheran all his life. His children said that before eating supper it was customary for Conrad to lead his family in prayer. According to his children, he always said his prayers in German. In the 1770s Conrad earned his living as a farmer and tanner in the Penns Township of Northumberland County, Pennslyvania. Tax records show he owned 100 acres, a cow and two horses.
During the American Revolution Conrad joined the patriot cause and served in the Pennsylvania line as a teamster (wagon driver). Family folklore says he fought at the Battle of Brandywine. However, my research hasn't proven that piece of family trivia yet. Historians do know that he enlisted at least three times into the Pennsylvania line. During his first known enlistment he served a corporal in the 3rd company of the 6th battalion in 1778. In 1780 he was a sergeant in the 3rd company of the 6th battalion. Then in 1782 he served as a private in the 3rd class of the 3rd company of the 6th battalion. After serving on the Pennsylvania line, Conrad would complain for the rest of his life that the rheumatism he experienced was due to the time he spent in the service. He died on August 25, 1827 and buried at (Pettibone Farm) Boosinger Cemetery, Summit County, OH. National Historical Magazine. DAR. 1941.

About 1907 the original stone was replaced by the present stone and the discrepancy in dates may be due to lack of care in reading the dates on the old stone. Cemetery Notes: The Mound Cemetery was established in 1801 by the citizens of Marietta, Ohio, to preserve an Ohio Hopewell burial mound dating from 100 BC to 500 AD, and provide for settler burials. After the Revolutionary War, the area along the Ohio River and Marietta attracted many veterans rewarded with land grants. General Rufus Putnam donated land for the cemetery. The cemetery is thought to have the largest number of Revolutionary War Officer burials, among other important Ohio River pioneer settlers and Northwest Territory politicians. Burials continue to today despite the limited space. The cemetery is open to the public, but parking is on the city streets surrounding the cemetery border. GM Marietta Chapter D. A. R. in Apr 1925. Cemetery notes and/or description: A small cemetery, a little more than one and a third acres, on a hillside surrounded by strip mined land. John Boyd Obituary from the Saint Clairsville Gazette, January 5th, 1833
He Died - On the 29th December, at his residence in Union township after a short illness, John Boyd Esq. In the 77th year of his age. Mr. Boyd was born in Cecil co. Md. in 1756. In our Revolutionary struggle he took up arms and gallantly defended his country. In 1800 he migrated to Ohio and lived in this county till his death. He was a substantial citizen: as an industrious and frugal farmer - as an accommodating, friendly and intelligent neighbor - as a politician, firm and consistent in the support of the democrat principles and institutions he aided in establishing in his youth - and last and not least, as a Christian he was exemplary for his morality and piety, and he died, as he had long lived, a revered and esteemed member of the Union Church. BRITTLE, THOMAS (Tuscarawas County) [40.639586 -81.455061]

Birth site in Virginia and Date is unknown He served as a Private in the 13th Virginia Regiment in Colonel Campbell's Company commanded by Colonel John Gibson for at least October to February 1779 in OH. He died on February 23, 1779 with a group who were ambushed while gathering firewood at Fort Laurens and killed by Indians under the command of the British. The Americans completed the construction of Fort Laurens—named after Henry Laurens, president of the Continental Congress—in early December 1778 under the command of General Lachlan McIntosh. The fort, built on the west bank of the Tuscarawas River was to serve three purposes. First, the Americans hoped to use Fort Laurens as a base to attack the British garrison located at Detroit. Second, it would hopefully deter American Indians loyal to the British from conducting raids against American settlers in eastern Ohio and western Pennsylvania. And finally, by offering protection to the neutral Christian Delaware's, the Americans might convince them to forsake their neutrality and join the patriots' cause.
In total, 21 soldiers lost their lives at Fort Laurens after a handful of British soldiers and a couple hundred Wyandot, Mingo, Munsee, and Delaware warriors laid siege to the fort before it was abandoned in 1779. Later, part of the fort was demolished during the building of the Ohio and Erie Canal. Currently none of the original fort remains above ground, but the outline of the fort is visible.

BROKAW, GEORGE, (Belmont County) [40.1556015 -80.9953003]

George Brokaw, born 29 March 1755 Somerset, Co., N.J., lived there and in Sussex County, where, on Nov. 19, 1776, he enlisted in the Revolutionary War. (War Rec. No. R-1232.) In his Application for a pension, in 1832, Harrison Co., Ohio, he gave date of enlistment, etc., stated that he was born Somerset Co., N.J. and was living in Sussex Co., when enlisted; that he moved back to Somerset Co., in 1777, after his discharge. In 1781 returned to Sussex Co., and remained several years, then moved to Beavertown (Beasom Town), Fayette Co., Pa. Five years later, to Washington Co., Pa, and three years later Jefferson Co., Ohio and six years later to Harrison Co., Ohio. Stated that he enlisted Nov. 19, 1776 and served five months in "the Flying Camp Corps" under 1st Lieut. Rosegrant (Rosecrans) in Capt. Chambers' Co., Col Ephraim Martin's Reg. and that he marched from Sussex Co., N.J. to New York City. On arriving at the Hudson River the British Man-O-War, Asa (Asia) was seen sailing up the river; the troops fired upon it, whereupon one of its cannon burst and killed seven men.

The company went to Long Island, to New York City, to Fort Washington and to White Plains. He then crossed the North River to Fort Lee, N.J. and from there marched under George Washington "to a large field" and left in Col Martin's Regt., which encountered the British Light Horse, in a marsh. Regiment then "wheeled and joined the main army under Washington," who marched them to Elizabethtown, N.J. Records of the U.S. War Dept. show that he served, as a Private, in Capt. Peter D. Vroom's Co., Col. Abraham Quick's Regt. of Somerset Co. Militia. He was discharged in spring of 1777 at New Brunswick, N.J., but was drafted again in Dec. of that yr. and served one month at Woodbridge, N.J. under Lieut. Henry Hoover. N.J. records state that he enlisted 1776, aged twenty years, as a Private in Capt. Abraham Shimer's Co., Col Ephraim Martin's Regt. of State Troops, for five months and that he participated in the Battle of Long Island, Aug. 27, 1776. George Brokaw was granted a pension on Oct. 23, 1832, of $26.67 per year.

He was married in Sussex Co., N.J. to Jane Custard (1752-1850), a daughter of William and Sarah (Swartwout) Custard. The exact time of their removal from Washington Co., Pa, not known, but he and son Abraham were instrumental in the founding of the Crabapple Presbyterian Church, near Cadiz, Ohio, which was founded prior to 1799, and served well for many years, until 1948, when it was torn down to make way for a road into the strip-mining district there. So they may have moved to there shortly after the land transaction. George and family lived in Jefferson and, adjacent to Harrison Cos., where he farmed. He left no will but there are deeds showing that he and Jane transferred land to their sons and others. One or two of later deeds, read, "land given by the President of the United States," - prob. Bounty Lands. George Brokaw died 27 June 1842 in Cadiz, Harrison Co., Ohio and is buried in the Crabapple church cem., and the old headstone which had become dilapidated and almost illegible, was replaced by a new marble headstone which was later marked with a D.A.R. Marker, in July 1955, by members of the Wheeling, W. Va. Chapter of D.A.R. Jane, George's wife, also bur. there, and on her headstone is a verse -

"Soon shall I pass the gloomy vale,
Soon all my mortal powers must vail,
O may my departing breath,
His living kindness sing in death."

Jane was a member of the Moravian Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution, and gravestone gives date of death as Oct. 7, 1850; pension rec. of George states that she d. Sept. 8, 1850, at 87 yrs., according to tombstone she was 98 y, 5 m. 6 dys., she was listed in 1850 as 98 yrs. He Died on June 27, 1842 West Whiting, Flushing, Belmont Co, OH. Bur Crabapple Church, Belmont Co., OH. At age 80, was living in Harrison Co 1833. Ref : Hist Somerset & Hunterdon Co, N. J. 94687, Vol 86, p 80, Natl No 85216 D. A. R. Lin. BROWN, CAPTAIN, (Paulding County) [41.112044 -84.420377]

Born ? Died ? Beyond a reasonable doubt, there lies buried at the confluence of the Big Auglaize and Little Auglaize Rivers a Revolutionary soldier, Captain Brown, who was placed in command of the Fort at this location, named Fort Brown, in honor of its commander. A little town was platted by Miller Arrowsmith, in 1835 and was known as

Ft Brown, I believe it was the first PO in Brown Twp., Paulding County. Plat in the recorder's office. James Bobenmeyer, Oakwood, OH, has a clear mind running back many yrs. He remembers old portions of the Ft. He says that not only Capt Brown, but two other soldiers possibly Rev. were buried there. He stated that the 3 graves were in evidence quite plainly until a granary covered the spot. Fur infor Albert Blakeslee, Treasurer of Paulding Co. 1928. Sent in by Ft Defiance Chap. BROWN, WHITE, (Ross County) [39.48901 -83.09928]

Born on March 23, 1749. He proformed Patriotic Service with Delaware in the Revolution. He married 1)Lucretia Clarkson, 2)Anna Withgott, 3)Sarah Thomas; children: Milly, Margaret, White, Anna, Lucretia, Mary, Thomas, William and Rebecca

White Brown was born in Delaware in 1749, on his father's farm. A faithful student, he acquired a good education, and having become proficient as a surveyor, made the first plat of Sussex County, Delaware. He served as a soldier in the Revolution, and was a conspicuous worker in the early history of the Methodist Episcopal Church in America. He visited the Northwest Territory in 1799, and soon after became a permanent settler in Ross County. From a history of Ross County, which, with Highland County, was published in 1880, we quote as follows: "White Brown, if not actually the first white settler of Deerfield Township, was first in matters of public improvement. He was a man of intelligence and very strong religious belief. He had, in 1781, built a Methodist Meeting House in his native state, it being known as Brown's Chapel. In 1799 he came to the Northwest Territory and explored quite a section including Ross County. In 1801 he returned to Ross County, accompanied by his sons and slaves (forty in number), which he later freed. He bought 500 acres of land in what is now Deerfield Township, which was then an unbroken forest, and pending the time when it should be cleared his sons and negro servants raised a crop of corn on the land now occupied by the Ross County Infirmary. In 1802 he built a log house on his land, and in 1803 the remainder of his family joined him, and in that year he built a commodious log barn. In that building from 1803 until 1818, were held the services of the pioneer Methodist Episcopal Church of Deerfield. His son-in-law, Steven Timmons, was the first to preach there. Later Bishops Francis Asbury, Whatcoat, and McKendry, also George and Lorenzo Dow, and the Finleys, father and son, preached there." In 1805 he erected a saw mill on his farm on Deer Creek, it being the first mill in Deerfield Township. He Died on March 25, 1842, aged 93 yrs. and Buried at Browns Chapel Cemetery, Deerfield Twp., Ross Co., OH. Ref: D. He came to OH in 1795 from VA and was an early pioneer in Noble County, OH. He was a farmer, a millwright, Justice of the Peace and Postmaster. He died at 70 years of age in 1830 and buried at Watson Cemetery, Summerfield, Noble County, OH. Watson Cemetery, near Summerfield, Noble County, Ohio. Cemetery notes and/or description: Watson Cemetery is in the South half of the Northwest quarter of Sect 36, Marion Twp., Noble Co., at the junction of C-5A and C-62 near the barn. This is in the northern part of the township, just a mile north of Glady Valley Cemetery. Published reports state that his marker is a small square stone lying even with the ground inscribed "C B, 1760 - 1830". This is in error. His stone was lost for many years. In May 1995, Michael Higgins went to the Watson Cemetery and found no trace of his burial. Using a steel probe and trowel, a fieldstone, hand carved with the initials C B was found. It also had his year of death as 1830. It is an oblong stone, about ten inches wide, six inches thick and two feet tall. The top may have been broken off, but no other pieces were found. He is buried next to his sister, Rebecca Bryan Watson. The stone was replaced with a modern marker by Michael Higgins, with assistance from Edward Bryan, in the summer of 2014. Hamilton J. BUCK, EDMUND, (Morrow County) [40.48110 -82.82310]

Born ? He served in the revolutionary War. He married Anna Hubble; children: Phoebe b 1819 & J.T. Edmund Buck built a cabin in Peru Township and made small improvements, but in 1817, having sold this land, he went into Lincoln Township to find a farm. He rode up to where the Sunbury road and Cardington and Chesterville pike cross, and, looking the farm all over, decided to purchase it if he could find the owner. On his return, however, he met a Stranger, and, as was the custom in those days, stopped to exchange news, and soon learned that he was the man he sought. His name was David Finley, and, going over the property together, they concluded the sale, Buck turning in his horse as part of the purchase price. The land was originally one of three lots granted to John Montour, a son and heir of Montgomery Montour, who served in the Revolutionary army as captain. The original warrant, signed by Thomas Jefferson as President, and James Madison, Secretary of State of the United States, is in the possession of J.T. Buck (Edmund's son).

Edmund gave a site for this denomination, Quakers, and a frame building was erected on the Sunbury road, just north of the pike, about 1850…An acre of ground was bought by this society, in 1857, for cemetery purposes, on the northeast corner of Lot 36, in Section 2, and in 1877 or 1878 the church building was moved on to this property…Just across from this cemetery is a private cemetery of the Buck family, where lie some of the older members of that family.

BUCKINGHAM, LEVI, (Clermont County) [39.212317 -84.310582]

Born on May 13, 1765 in Orange Co., New York child of William (1734-1827) & Jane Jones (1743-1826) Buckingham. Was at Covalt's Sta when Abel Covalt was killed by Indians (pp. 82, Jones Hist. Cincinnati, OH). He married Lydia McFarland Sears (1777-1851) in 1808; Children : William L, Isaac, Elizabeth, Jane, Maria and Lydia H. Having a gun with you was not necessarily insurance from being killed by the Indians. In June of 1788 Levi and 4 others were hunting when they were attacked by a larger group of Indians with guns. The 5 scattered trying to escape. A chase insued. Ultimately one man was killed and another wounded. Levi and the two other men barely escaped with their lives. The wounded man was Capt Covalt, he was killed in a later attack.
Being a pioneer was a risky. Many other Indian attacks occured that where more of Levi's neighbors were killed. Some of these attacks even occurred mid day within yards of armed fortifications.

In 1791 Levi served with General St Clair in one of the bloodiest battles ever. Nearly 600 of St Clair's 1400 soldiers were killed compared to only 40 Indians. The battle site became Fort Recovery, Ohio.

Many veterans buried in family cemeteries, neighborhood plots or small church burial grounds which are now extinct and or built over during the disappearance of rural areas and the increase of urban communities in Crosby Township and/or Hamilton County during the late 19th century or 20th century are now lost to our knowledge. Their families having re-located, their descendants now not knowing their homes, deeds, and/or burial locations lead to their obscurity. SAR Ancestor # P-124349.

BURCH, EDY (Washington County) [35.59067 -81.46779]

He was born in 1760 in Stonington, New London County, Connecticut to parents Benjamin Burch and Anna Udall. He served in the Vermont Militia, as a Private In June 1776, Edy, then residing in Hartford on the New Hampshire Grants (now Windsor County, Vermont), mustered, as a Private and as a substitute for his father, into a Company of Militia raised from the Towns of Hartford, Hertford (now Hartland), Pomfret, and Windsor. The Company was placed under the command of Captain Abel

Marsh of Hertford. The Company rendezvoused at Windsor and marched immediately across the Green Mountains to Mount Independence on the east shore of Lake Champlain opposite Fort Ticonderoga. While stationed at Mount Independence, members of the Company were employed in small groups to scout up and down Lake Champlain. After serving 3 months, the Company was discharged. Edy then went back home to Hartford reaching there September 27, 1776. In the later part of June 1777, as Major General John Burgoyne and his British Army moved up Lake Champlain from Canada, Edy was drafted out of Captain Joshua Hazen's Hartford Militia Company for service as a Private in a composite Militia Company placed under the command of Captain Seth Hodges of Pomfret in Colonel Joseph Marsh's Vermont Militia Regiment. The Company rendezvoused at Windsor on July 2nd and then marched to Manchester, Bennington County, Vermont where they remained until the Company was discharged on October 4th. Edy was discharged from Captain Hodges Company on September 10th and within days rejoined Captain Joshua Hazen's Hartford Militia Company. Captain Hazen's Company entered the service on September 23, 1777 under the immediate command of Colonel Peter Olcott. Edy marched with Captain Hazen's Company to Bennington, Bennington County, Vermont where they taried a few days. The Company then marched on to Saratoga, New York where it was engaged in the Battle of Saratoga (Bemis Heights) on October 7th. After General Burgoyne and his Army surrendered on October 17th, Edy was taken from Captain Hazen's Company and put in a Company under the command of Captain Steel Smith of Windsor. Captain Smith's Company guarded General Burgoyne's troops as they were marched to Springfield, Connecticut. Soon after arriving at Springfield, Edy was discharged. He immediately returned home to Hartford arriving there on October 29, 1777 after 4 months service., . He married Elizabeth __ (1757-1842); children: Electa b. 1796, Oliver b. 1784, Eliza and Diantha b. 1787. He was pensioned. Applied May 24, 1833 as a resident of Aurelius Township, Washington County, Ohio. Ref.# S17303. He received an annual allowance of $ 23.33. He lived in Hartford in Windsor County, Vermont at enlistment. After the war he moved to Canada for 4 years the returned to Hartford Vermont for 2 or t3 years , then moved to Cayuga County New York. In 1817 he moved to Washington County, Ohio. He died at 88 years of age on October 15, 1848 in Aurelius Township, Washington County, Ohio and buried at Liberty Hill Cemetery, Adams Township, Washington County, Ohio. Cheesman when he was killed a few minutes before General Montgomery fell. After both the Capt. & General's deaths the company retreated and returned to New York for about 5 months when on March 18, 1776 he enlisted for one year in the service under Capt. Thomas Patterson of the 3rd NJ Regiment which served under Col. Elias Dayton which also was attached to Gen. William Maxwell's Brigade. On that following March 18, 1777 he reenlisted in the same company. Jedediah continued under Capt. Patterson's command for the space of 4 1/2 years until Thomas Patterson was promoted to Brigade Major & Jedediah was affixed under Captain William Mitchell's command still of the 3rd NJ Regiment. Jedediah was at Valley Forge when General George Washington was from Dec 1777 until June 1778 under Captain Thomas Patterson's command. Jedediah was at the battle of Brandywine, Germantown, Monmouth, Springfield, and various other skirmishes. At the battle of Springfield, Col. Elias Dayton requested Jedediah take charge of a field position to annoy the enemy in their advance, after those who had the charge of it fled. They were able to stop the enemies rapid advance while his Colonel was encouraging him bravely doing his duty, and soon after the Continental were victorious in this battle. He continued in Captain William Mitchells company to the close of the war. February 1782 Col. Dayton recommended to General George Washington to discharge Jedediah on account of family concerns and he had served his term. He was discharged in November 1782. He was baptized at the First Presbyterian Church in Morristown, New Jersey, March 21, 1757.

Many veterans buried in family cemeteries, neighborhood plots or small church burial grounds which are now extinct and or built over during the disappearance of rural areas and the increase of urban communities in Millcreek Township and/or Hamilton County during the late 19th century or 20th century are now lost to our knowledge. Their families having re-located, their descendants now not knowing their homes, deeds, and/or burial locations lead to their obscurity.

CARPENTER, JOHN (Coshocton County) [40.30490 -80.91240]

Born in 1735 in Happshire County, England to father William (1799-_). Served in Virginia Line, Quartermaster Sergeant of State Garrison Regiment, Served 3 yrs. Discharge given June 1, 1781 by Thomas W. Ewell, Captain Commanding. He had been captured by Wyandot Indians, but escaped from the Moravian town near Sandusky and got to Fort Pitt. "The regiment remained in the service of the Continental Army until late 1779 when called back to Virginia." Carpenter was later sent to the Ohio Valley toward the end of the Revolution, where "he became an associate of Lewis Wetzel, the Zanes and other famous frontiersmen. His adventures would fill a volume." Wetzel and the Zanes were associated with Fort Henry (present-day Wheeling, in Ohio County, West Virginia), so this is presumably where John Carpenter was stationed. He mustered out on 1 June 1781, while General Cornwallis's troops were raiding through the Virginia heartland. But John was already in the middle of a war zone and, as a private citizen, he continued fighting, with his family at his side. He Married Nancy Beaver (1739-1806) around 1760 in WVA; children: Susannah b. 1765, Edward b. 1761, George b. 1767, Elizabeth b. 1772, Sarah b. 1776, Nancy b. 1775, Mary b. 1778, William b. 1783 & Thomas b. 1786. They had another run in with the Indians at their log cabin where he was wounded, but survived. He Died on September 3, 1806; buried in Prairie Chapel Church Cemetery, 45494 County Road 23, Coshocton, OH 43812. (Infor by W. A. Carpenter, Freeport, OH. to Coshocton papers). See No 198703, D. A. CECIL, JOSHUA (Harrison County) [40.22675 -81.07815]

Born in 1733 in Prince Geroge's County, Maryland, son of Philip and Elizabeth Gittings. Cecil. He Served as a Private with Maryland Flying Camp of the Continental Army in the Revolutionary War, from 1775 to 1783 under Captain Lowe and was in the Battle of Hrlem Plains. He married Mary Berry (__1750) in 1775 or 60; children: Ann b. 1760, Joshua b. 1762, . He lived and married where he was born in Prince Geroge's County, Maryland. Details of the Cecil Family including Joshua Cecil, the Revolutionary War soldier, are recorded in the Book "The Cecil Family of Maryland with some Allied Ball Family" compiled and written by Walter V. Ball. This appears online in digital form at the website of the University of Wisconsin.
Joshua Cecil of Frederick County, Maryland was mustered on July 13, 1776, in the Maryland Flying Camp from St. George's County, Maryland. Walter Ball describes Joshua Cecil as "a very poor man." He was mustered on July 13, 1776, under Captain John H. Lowe and was reviewed and passed by Lt. John M. Burgess. The following was written of Lowe's Maryland Flying Camp on October 13, 1776. "By last return I had 237 sick owing to our lying on the cold ground without straw or plank. Great numbers are badly off for clothing and some without blankets as several did not receive any and some of the first three companies lost theirs leaving New York. Soldiers, what of them are in good health, appear to be of good spirits though ragged and some without shoes." CHAFFIN, SIMON (Wayne County) [40.7989006 -81.8735962]

Born in 1764 in Acton, MA to parents Robert (1724-1775) and Hannah Powers (1730-1810) Chaffin. He served as a Private & Minuteman with Massachusetts in the Revolutionary War. He married Mercy Sanderson (1768-1854) daughter of Moses and Mary (Flagg) in 1786; children: Mercy b. 1768, Lois, Polly, Rhoda, Joseph b. 1799, Gladwin, Simon and Milly b. 1810. Simon was a blacksmith. His shop was in front of where the Acton Monument stands. He dug the well at the town pump. On Aug. 9, 1804, he bought 75 acres of land in Union, Maine, and with his wife, and four children he took up his residence there, remaining until late in 1811, when he started for the West with his family, selling his 75 acres of land in Union on Sept 11, 1811. Three other children were born in Union. Shortly after the above date he started with his family, consisting of his wife and six children and his son-in-law, Obediah Luce, and journeyed to Ohio. They went in a four-horse wagon, traveling for 57 days, a distance of 1050 miles, never unloading the wagon until he reached Poland, Trumbull County, Ohio. There he remained until the winter of 1812-1813, when he removed to lands he had purchased of Isaac Poe and John Nagle. On Sept 5, 1814, the township of East Union was formed, and this name was suggested by Simon Chaffin in recollection of his home in Union, Maine, and was adopted by the inhabitants. The first white man to die there was Vesta Frary, and Simon Chaffin helped to lay him out and to dig his grave. Mr. and Mrs. Chaffin were both members of the Methodist Church and meetings were held in their house. He died in 1837 and buried at East Union Cemetery, Honeytown, Wayne County, OH. Cemetery Notes: Also known as East Union Lutheran Cemetery, Honeytown Cemetery. Located north of United States Route 30, east of South Honeytown Road, west of Eby Road in East Union Township.

CLAPSADDLE, DANIEL (Columbiana County) [40.6959 -80.7373]

Born on February 20, 1756 in York County, Pennsylvania to Parents Johann Michael (1722-1787) and Catherine Bardt (1725-1795) Clapsaddle. He served as a Captain in the Pennsylvania Militia commanding a Company of Cumberland County, PA Militia. He married Christine Windborn (1760-1842); children: Anna Mary, William, John, Christina, Daniel and Jacob. He died on May 27, 1813 in Center Township and buried at Jordanville Cemetery, Steubenville Pike Road, Lisbon, Columbiana County, OH 44432. Cemetery notes and/or description: Established in 1808. Also known as, Old Presbyterian Cemetery and Old Dutch Cemetery. The cemetery has been sadly neglected for decades (possibly for over a century). The entire cemetery has not been cleared, has grown into woods and is mowed infrequently. Many of the remaining stones are broken and covered in underbrush. Some stones are piled around trees. Other stones are lost to history. There are military veterans in this cemetery. Abner Allison served in the War of 1812 with Capt. Harbaugh's Company of Light Dragoons. Daniel Clapsaddle was Captain of the Cumberland County PA Militia during the American Revolution. John Thompson was a veteran of the War of 1812. Jacob Shawk was a veteran of the American Revolution. Nothing has been done to honor these patriots. Nobody cares. In recent years, a few independent groups have tried to clean up the cemetery (ie a Boy Scout troop and a public school class). The village of Lisbon has all kinds of excuses for not taking care of the cemetery, even though many of their pioneers are buried there. The cemetery is located in Center Township, Columbiana County, Ohio. DAR Patriot Index Centennial Edition, Part 1, p. 571. CLARK, JOHN (Tuscarawas County) [40.639586 -81.455061]

Birth is unknown He served as an Ensign in the 13th Virginia Regiment in Colonel Campbell's Company commanded by Colonel John Gibson for at least October to February 1779 in OH. He died on February 23, 1779 with a group who were ambushed while gathering firewood at Fort Laurens and killed by Indians under the command of the British. The Americans completed the construction of Fort Laurens—named after Henry Laurens, president of the Continental Congress—in early December 1778 under the command of General Lachlan McIntosh. The fort, built on the west bank of the Tuscarawas River was to serve three purposes. First, the Americans hoped to use Fort Laurens as a base to attack the British garrison located at Detroit. Second, it would hopefully deter American Indians loyal to the British from conducting raids against American settlers in eastern Ohio and western Pennsylvania. And finally, by offering protection to the neutral Christian Delaware's, the Americans might convince them to forsake their neutrality and join the patriots' cause.
In total, 21 soldiers lost their lives at Fort Laurens after a handful of British soldiers and a couple hundred Wyandot, Mingo, Munsee, and Delaware warriors laid siege to the fort before it was abandoned in 1779. Later, part of the fort was demolished during the building of the Ohio and Erie Canal. Currently none of the original fort remains above ground, but the outline of the fort is visible.

CLARK, WILLIAM (Ross County) [39.3242 -82.9861]

Born in 1758 as a freeman in York County Virginia, to John Clarke, a free mulatto, and Judith a white servant of Joshua Slade. William Clerke, aka William Clark, served in the Revolutionary War with Lt. Col. John Jameson. Col. Jameson resided in Culpepper County, as did Clark. According to Col. Jameson, Clark served with him in 1780 and 1781. During these years Jameson's unit was stationed in North Castle, New York. When British spy John Andre, who was relaying a message from Benedict Arnold betraying the American cause in August of 1780 was captured, he was delivered to Col. Jameson, Clark was apparently present with Jameson during the transfer of Andre. Whether Clark acted as bodyservant, cook, courier, or teamster is unclear, but people of color often did these jobs during the Revolution. He was at the Battles of Germantown and Monmouth and served to the close of the war. In addition, there were some people of color who participated by fighting as a soldier. He married Hannah Peters in Stafford County, VA. It is not clear when they came to Ohio, but William is listed as a "Free Man of Color" in the 1810 Culpeper County. Virginia Census (seven in family) and made his application for a Revolutionary War pension there in 1818- 1820. A Clerk of Courts ' record titled "Regulating Black and Mulatto Persons of Ross County. Ohio" (p 53-55) shows Wi1iam's free registration. and as being the same person of the name and a Revolutionary War veteran from Culpeper County. Virginia. By 1830. the widow had returned to Culpeper County, Virginia where in the Census she was listed as a "free woman of color" and head of the household (and again in 1840). Her widow's pension in Culpeper County, Virginia was administered after her death which occurred on 31 Aug 1847, with four children surviving including: Coleman b. 1798, "Kitty" b. 1799 and" Betsey" b. before 1799.

CLEAVELAND, WILLIAM (Tuscarawas County) [40.639586 -81.455061]

Birth site and Date is unknown He served as a Private in the 9th/13th Virginia Regiment in Colonel Campbell's Company commanded by Colonel John Gibson for at least October to February 1779 in OH. He died on February 23, 1779 with a group who were ambushed while gathering firewood at Fort Laurens and killed by Indians under the command of the British. The Americans completed the construction of Fort Laurens—named after Henry Laurens, president of the Continental Congress—in early December 1778 under the command of General Lachlan McIntosh. The fort, built on the west bank of the Tuscarawas River was to serve three purposes. First, the Americans hoped to use Fort Laurens as a base to attack the British garrison located at Detroit. Second, it would hopefully deter American Indians loyal to the British from conducting raids against American settlers in eastern Ohio and western Pennsylvania. And finally, by offering protection to the neutral Christian Delaware's, the Americans might convince them to forsake their neutrality and join the patriots' cause.
In total, 21 soldiers lost their lives at Fort Laurens after a handful of British soldiers and a couple hundred Wyandot, Mingo, Munsee, and Delaware warriors laid siege to the fort before it was abandoned in 1779. Later, part of the fort was demolished during the building of the Ohio and Erie Canal. Currently none of the original fort remains above ground, but the outline of the fort is visible.

Pens granted Oct 8, 1833. George Clency was living with his son/grandson Sidney Clensey in 1850 census, age 105. The Germantown Emporium says :"He was born on the 22d of December, 1744, and served during the Revolutionary war ; but we are not able, at present, to say what engagements he fought in. He had voted at every Presidential election since the formation of our Government ; his last vote was given for Gen. Scott. He came to this township nearly fifty years ago, when it was an entire wilderness, where he resided until his death. He received a small pension from the Government; but he lived and died in extreme humble circumstances. Until several years past his memory was excellent, and he possessed a great degree of activity." Application supported by Elijah Mills of Dayton who served with him.

In 1783, Phineas was discharged as a Sergeant. It was in Waterford, Ohio that he participated in the Indian Wars during 1789. Phineas married 1) Patience Olney on July 18, 1798, in Waterford, Washington, Ohio. Patience died after 1804 (date unknown), and it is not known where she is buried; children: Theodore b. 1804. On April 7, 1788, Phineas, along with a group of forty-eight other men of the First Association of the Ohio Company, led by General Rufus Putnam, arrived in Ohio at the confluence of the Muskingum and Ohio Rivers and established Marietta as the first permanent settlement of the new United States in the Territory Northwest of the River Ohio. Later Phineas married the widowed 2) Polly Waterman Spencer (1793-1862) on May 1, 1817, in Washington County, Ohio.
In 1819, Phineas submitted a deposition to the Pension Board asking for a pension for his services during the War. His pension was granted.
Phineas remained near Waterford for the remainder of his life. He died on September 29, 1848 and is buried in the Andrews Cemetery in Morgan County, Ohio. The cemetery is located directly across the Muskingum River from the town known as Relief Station. Phineas is recorded on the Ohio Roster of the Revolutionary War soldiers who are buried in that state.

After Phineas had died, his widow Polly submitted several legal documents asking for Phineas' pension to be adjusted to correctly reflect his length of service and his rank. Copies of the original deposition and subsequent legal filings are on file in the War Department Archives. His original pension was $80 annually, and his widow Polly was asking that it be adjusted to either $96 or $120 depending on which Pension Act was used as the basis. He married 1) Sarah Morris (1746-1781) in 1764, 2) Mercy Ewing (1743-1793) in 1783, 3) Margaret Starr Delaney (1783-1850) in 1803; children: #1 Rebecca, Sarah, Samuel, Peter & William #2 Ambrose #3 Margaret and Nancy. He died on August 22, 1827 and buried at Schaffer Cemetery, Alledonia, Belmont Co., OH. Cemetery notes and/or description: Schaffer Cemetery on Belmont Ridge, Beallsville, Ohio. This cemetery is located on a farm owned by Paul Kanzigg and you have to walk through a pasture up a hill to get there. It is about 1 mile from the Belmont Ridge Christian Church Cemetery. It used to have a fence around it but the cattle have knocked it down. As you can see in these photos the stones are getting knocked over.
History of Belmont and Jefferson Counties, published in 1880 by Historical Publishing Co. Wheeling WV. Page 413:
"Among the first settlers were the Danfords, Perkinses, Beans, Reads, &c. ...The Danfords, perhaps were the earliest permanent settlers. ...The first member of the family, of whom it is now possible to get any account, was Peter Danford, the son of Samuel Danford and Mary Groome, who was most likely born in Brunswick, Burlington County in the state of New Jersey, in the year 1739.
He was a farmer and was married to a Sarah Morris in New Jersey. From this union they had four children: Samuel, William, Sarah and Rebecca. After the death of his first wife, he married Mercy Ewing, by whom he had one son -Ambrose. His second wife died in 1793.
Between 1785 and 1796, Peter Danford moved with his family to Washington county, Pennsylvania, where he settled on Patterson creek. From this point his sons, Samuel, William and Ambrose, came to Captina Creek, Belmont County, Ohio, about 1797, and located in Section 4, Washington township, where they cleared a piece of ground, built a cabin, and planted some corn, after which Samuel and William returned to Patterson creek for the family, leaving Ambrose to take care of the crop and look after the interest of the new home in the woods.
After an absence of several weeks, the boys returned to their frontier home, bringing with them their father and sister Sarah, the younger sister, Rebecca having been left at Patterson creek. She was brought over perhaps, the following year. The family remained at this place for several years, till Peter entered land on Bend Fork, in Section 23. In 1803, Peter Danford married his third wife, a widow, Margaret DeLancy, by whom he had two children, twin daughters. He died in 1827. His wife Margaret died in 1835."

That was on December 24, 1852 then buried at Dickerson Cemetery, Twp. Road 93, Cadiz Twp., Harrison County, OH 43907. His land patent was in 1810. He gave land to the Methodist Church where he and is wife are buried. He was a blacksmith and a farmer. In 1801 he emigrated to the then Jefferson, but now Harrison County, Ohio. He was among the first settlers. He first built a camp---then a cabin. When the latter was finished, he assembled his neighbors the first Sabbath, in the form of a prayer meeting dedicated it to the service of himself and his Maker. It became a useful cabin. It served for kitchen, parlor, sleeping room, class room and chapel. Many a weary itinerant "fed and feasted there". Here family prayer was offered morning and evening during the week, and social prayer on the Sabbath. DICKERSON, THOMAS (Washington County) [39.5286 -81.0617]

Thomas Dickerson was the Great Great Grandson of William Dickerson, who came to America around 1640 from Brampton, England, settling in Prince Georges County, Maryland, where the Dickerson's lived as Planters for the next three generations. Thomas Dickerson was born in Tazewell, Virginia on October 15th, 1757. Eventually the Dickerson Family moved to Western Pennsylvania. In August of 1776 Thomas Dickerson, along with two of his Brothers, enlisted into the 8th Pennsylvania regiment in Kittanning, Pennsylvania. In December, 1776, the 8th Pennsylvania received orders from General Washington to march to Continental Headquarters in New Jersey, arriving in January of 1777 after walking over 450 miles, across Pennsylvania in the dead of Winter, lacking adequate food, clothing and shelter! A short time later 100 men from the 8th Pennsylvania, including Thomas Dickerson, were reassigned to Colonel Daniel Morgan's Rifle Regiment. In August the Rifle Regiment was assigned to General Gates Northern Campaign, where he participated in the Battles of Freemans Farm and Bemis Heights, (collectively known as the Battle of Saratoga.) After the British Defeat at Saratoga, New York, Morgan's Riflemen returned to Headquarters near Philadelphia, where a small detachment of Riflemen, including Thomas Dickerson, joined the Virginia Troops, under General La Fayette. In December of 1777 the British retreated to Philadelphia and General Washington's troops went into Winter Quarters at Valley Forge.

In June of 1778 Thomas Dickerson rejoined the 8th Pennsylvania Line and marched first to Fort McIntosh in Beaver, Pennsylvania and then to present day Zoar, Ohio, to construct Fort Laurens.In August of 1778 Thomas Dickerson was discharged in Pittsburgh, after serving over three years of service. In 1790 Thomas Dickerson married Margaret Davis of Western Pennsylvania and they settled in Western Virginia, near Wheeling. Over the next fifteen years Thomas and Margaret had nine children, four sons and five daughters. In 1795 Thomas Dickerson travelled to Kentucky, looking for a new homestead. Finding most of the choice property already taken, he then travelled north to Marietta, Ohio and purchased a farm near the village of Grandview, approximately twenty miles east of Marietta. Here Thomas and Margaret remained for the rest of their lives, serving as farmers and well respected citizens of Washington County Ohio. Margaret Dickerson died in 1822 and Thomas died in August of 1827 (some records show that he died in 1836). Various efforts have been made over the years to locate their graves, however, to date, the final resting place of Thomas and Elizabeth Dickerson has not been found? Some speculate that they were buried somewhere on their farm near Grandview, Washington County Ohio. There is a memorial plaque honoring Thomas Dickerson, located in the Revolutionary War Veterans Cemetary in Marietta, Ohio. DAR# A034588. Revolutionary War Graves Register. Clovis H. DILLEY, EPHRAIM SR., (Guernsey Co.) [39.93940 -81.46340]

Born on November 6, 1755 in Hunterdon, N. J. to Parents : Aaron Dilley and Hannah Perry. He served as a Pvt soldier Sussex Co, N. J. Enl Oct 1776, Companies Henry Countryman, Capt Jacob Stull, Capt Matthia Bethwith, Capt Christian Longstreet, 2nd Regt, 1779. Aaron said to have been Revolutionary soldier in the 2nd and 3rd Regts. Sussex/NJ Militia.. He Married Lucy Niss Ayres (1763-1840); Children: Joseph b. 1782, Abraham b. 1785, Hannah b. 1787, Anna b. 1789, Robert b. 1793, William b. 1796, Ephraim b. 1799 and Samuel b. 1802. Lucy died 15 March 1840 in Ohio. She, along with Ephraim and many of their descendants, is buried near the southeast corner of the Senecaville Cemetery one-half mile from the old Ephraim Dilley homestead where his son Robert Dilley lived in later years. Ephraim and Lucy had six sons and two daughters; all but the youngest two sons were born in New Jersey. All eight children lived to maturity. The gaps between birth years hint that other children may have died during infancy and been buried in New Jersey. On 8 May 1870, Robert Dilley wrote a letter to his brother Ephraim Jr. listing the ages that his brothers and sisters would have been in 1870. He also listed the birth and marriage dates of Ephraim's children. Four of the children lived to be over 70 years of age and Abraham was 90 when he died. This record of family robustness and longevity is remarkable for children born in the 18th century when medical treatment was primitive. DODGE, NATHANIEL, (Washington Co.) [39.41998 -81.45187]

Born on July 3, 1763. Hampton Falls, New Hampshire to Sarah H. Dodge (1746-1793). He Enlisted as a soldier in New Hampshire in 1780 at the age of seventeen. He married Rebecca Walton (1761-1823); children: Sarah b. 1783 and Nathaniel b. 1792. He Died on May 13, 1838 and Buried at Mound Cemetery, Marietta, OH. Cemetery Notes: The Mound Cemetery was established in 1801 by the citizens of Marietta, Ohio, to preserve an Ohio Hopewell burial mound dating from 100 BC to 500 AD, and provide for settler burials. After the Revolutionary War, the area along the Ohio River and Marietta attracted many veterans rewarded with land grants.
General Rufus Putnam donated land for the cemetery. The cemetery is thought to have the largest number of Revolutionary War Officer burials, among other important Ohio River pioneer settlers and Northwest Territory politicians. Born on September 22, 1746 in East Hanover Township, Lancaster County, Pennsylvania to parents Hans Jacob Dubs and Barbara Wierick. He served as a drummer in Captain Thomas Coppenhaver's Company, Lancaster County, Pennsylvania Militia, John also served as a private in the 3rd Class of Captain David Krase's 4th Company of the 2nd Battalion. He married Christena (1753-1819); children: Daniel b. 1774, Henry b. 1777, John b. 1781, E1izabeth, Catherine, Jacob, Samuel b. 1786, Barbara, Leonard b. 1790, Anna b. 1797 and Adam. Since John Dups, on the death of his father, chose as guardian, Henry Waggoner, a blacksmith, it is believed he became a blacksmith as well as a farmer. The only tradition has come down about his generation is that the sons were bound out to learn a trade. This was the custom of the time and not confined to orphans. Ross County, Ohio was a raw frontier in 1800 and the records kept were few and scanty. The first tax record found lists John Dups paying tax on 100 acres of land in Twin Township on Waugh's Run in 1808. He paid his tax (something like 75 cents per year) up until 1818 the year he died. The probate record is very brief and appears under the name of John Toops, although the tombstone (which still exists and is legible in the Moore Cemetery on the Cincinnati Pike, Twin Township, Ross County, Ohio) lists it correctly as Dups. He died on April 1, 1819 in Twin Township. Ross County. Ohio and is buried n the Moore Cemetery, US Route 50, Twin Township, Ross County, Ohio. DULIN, JOHN SR., (Wayne Co.) [40.93090 -82.05380]

Born on May 21, 1760 in Wetzel County, VA. He served with VA in the Revolutionary War. John served several "tours" during the Revolution, the most "interesting" of which occurred during the spring and summer of 1780. In April of that year John left his home in Washington County, PA, descended the Ohio River to what is now Louisville, KY, and joined 30 other men in the interior of Kentucky. In July the men were sent to join a force of 900 others on the Ohio River. The force was commanded by none other than George Rogers Clark (the hero of Vincennes). The captain of the scouting party was Simon Kenton, the legendary Kentucky and Ohio frontiersman. The expedition was given the unenviable task of entering Ohio territory and pursuing Indian forces under Chief Black Hoof up the Little Miami River to "punish" the Indians for killing settlers in the Kentucky territory. Clark's force made their way to the Indian village of Chillicothe (not to be confused with the current Ohio city) only to find the village deserted. Pressing on up the Little Miami, Clark met and defeated the Indian forces at a location now encompassed by George Rogers Clark Park near Springfield, OH. The battle that ensued is remembered by various names: the Battle of Pickaway (a.k.a. "Piqua," a.k.a. "Peckuwe") Plains. The encounter was reportedly the largest battle of the Revolution fought west of the Allegheny Mountains.He married Sarah Sharp; Children: John Dulin, Jr. Pension file #W10765. DUNLAP, ANDREW (Tuscarawas County) [40.639586 -81.455061]

Birth Unknown. He served as Sergeant in the 13th Virginia Regiment. Andrew Dunlap enlisted 15 June 1778. He was in Capt Robert Beall's Company under Col. John Gibson. He was stationed at Fort Laurens in what became Tuscaraswas County, Ohio, at least from October 1778 to February1779. He was one of eighteen men who went out of the fort to get firewood. They were ambushed by the Indians under the command of the British and sixteen were killed and two were captured. The Americans completed the construction of Fort Laurens—named after Henry Laurens, president of the Continental Congress—in early December 1778 under the command of General Lachlan McIntosh. The fort, built on the west bank of the Tuscarawas River was to serve three purposes. First, the Americans hoped to use Fort Laurens as a base to attack the British garrison located at Detroit. Second, it would hopefully deter American Indians loyal to the British from conducting raids against American settlers in eastern Ohio and western Pennsylvania. And finally, by offering protection to the neutral Christian Delaware's, the Americans might convince them to forsake their neutrality and join the patriots' cause. In total, 21 soldiers lost their lives at Fort Laurens after a handful of British soldiers and a couple hundred Wyandot, Mingo, Munsee, and Delaware warriors laid siege to the fort before it was abandoned in 1779. Later, part of the fort was demolished during the building of the Ohio and Erie Canal. Currently none of the original fort remains above ground, but the outline of the fort is visible.

EMERICK, MICHAEL ((Montgomery Co.) [39.61126 -84.36607]

Born February 10, 1756 in Bethel Township, Berks County, Pennsylvania. He was baptised on March 20, 1756 by Reverend Decker, Reformed Minister. Sponsors were John Jacob Emrich and his wife Anna Maria. He Served in the Revolutionary War in Captain Shepler's Company 1770-1780. Accounts of Lt. Captain Folmer's Company, Berks County, Pennsylvania, shows him listed at Lieutenant 8th Class. He Married Christina Kanter (1755-1838) on September 22, 1778 (daughter of Jacob Kanter of Tulpehocken Township) in Christ Lutheran Church in Stouchsburg, Pennsylvania. Children: Susanna b. 1781, Henry Abraham & John William b. 1799.
He was received into the Lutheran faith May 16, 1761. Reverend J. P. Hentz in his book "History of the Evangelical Lutheran Congregation in Germantown, Ohio" wrote as follows; "Michael, the oldest (speaking of the four Emrick brothers), born in Berks County, Pennsylvania, February 10, 1756, came here in 1806, and purchased the land on which at present stands Conover's Mill, on which he lived until removed by death, which event took place October 14, 1820. He was a man of means and purchased at once land for those of his children who were grown up to years of maturity. Himself a strict and consistent member of the Lutheran Church, he brought up all his children in his own faith. Two of these, Mrs. John Stump and Mrs. John Stoever are still living - the others have gone to their final rest. He frequently held official positions in the congregation, and contributed largely to its support. Reverend Hentz also gives a thumbnail sketch of the Emrick brothers in his book "Twin Valley and its Settlement and Subsequent History". Michael Emrick - died October 14, 1820. He and his wife Christina are buried in the Sunbury Cemetery, Sunbury, German Township, Montgomery County, OH.
At the time of writing this Emrick genealogy, the Sunbury Cemetery is in a deplorable condition. A number of years ago, pigs owned by the tenants of the adjoining old schoolhouse that was converted into a home, played havoc with the grounds, up-rooting many of the tombstones. Michael's marker was one of them. Reference Pennsylvania Archives, Third Series, Volume 6, page 320. He is also listed in the Official Roster III, Soldiers of the American Revolution who lived in the State of Ohio, published 1959, page 120. DAR# A036376. Has a tombstone.

EVINS, CHARLES (Tuscarawas County) [40.639586 -81.455061]

Birth site and Date is unknown He served as a Private in the 13th Virginia Regiment in Colonel Campbell's Company commanded by Colonel John Gibson for at least October to February 1779 in OH. He died on February 23, 1779 with a group who were ambushed while gathering firewood at Fort Laurens and killed by Indians under the command of the British. The Americans completed the construction of Fort Laurens—named after Henry Laurens, president of the Continental Congress—in early December 1778 under the command of General Lachlan McIntosh. The fort, built on the west bank of the Tuscarawas River was to serve three purposes. First, the Americans hoped to use Fort Laurens as a base to attack the British garrison located at Detroit. Second, it would hopefully deter American Indians loyal to the British from conducting raids against American settlers in eastern Ohio and western Pennsylvania. And finally, by offering protection to the neutral Christian Delaware's, the Americans might convince them to forsake their neutrality and join the patriots' cause.
In total, 21 soldiers lost their lives at Fort Laurens after a handful of British soldiers and a couple hundred Wyandot, Mingo, Munsee, and Delaware warriors laid siege to the fort before it was abandoned in 1779. Later, part of the fort was demolished during the building of the Ohio and Erie Canal. Currently none of the original fort remains above ground, but the outline of the fort is visible.

Bur at Finney Town, now Finneytown, named for donor of grounds. Location of graves; now within city limits of Cincinnati, Hamilton Co. Name on p 68 "Janes Hist of Cincinnati," published 1879.

Text of the marker:

A company of soldiers from Fort Pitt landed at the mouth of the Great Miami October 22, 1785, and immediately began the building of a fort near this site. It was named Fort Finney in honor of Major Walter Finney, who was in command of the operation.

The Continental Congress had commissioned generals George Rogers Clark, Richard Butler, and Samuel H. Parsons to make a peace treaty with the Shawnee Indians and to mark off lands to be allotted to that tribe.

This site was chosen as being "most convenient to the principle body of savages and nearly equal distance from the rapids (Louisville) and the interior part of Kentucky and Limestone (Maysville)"

Invitations were sent to the reluctant Indians, who finally met by the council house near the fort during the middle of January, 1786. On January 31, 1786 the treaty with the Shawnee Nation was signed, resulting in the immediate removal of hostile Indians from the area.

FISHBACK, PHILIP (Clermont County) [39.0675 -84.1710]

He was born in Alsace, then a province of France, about the year 1752, and his wife was a German woman. He was a Frenchman but spoke both German and French, though his children were taught in the latter language only. He came to America with the French soldiers under Lafayette, under whom he fought in the Revolution of 1776. At the close of that patriotic struggle he returned home and married his wife in the adjoining province of Loraine. He again entered the French service under Napoleon with whom he crossed the Alps, and under whom he fought for seven long years, for which he received a medal and an honorable discharge in addition to his meagre monthly stipend. He came to this country in the early part of the century and settled in Pierce township, where his children were born. They were George Fishback, the well known farmer near Olive Branch; Philip, residing at Cherry Grove, Hamilton county, and Jacob, who years ago went to the Pike's Peak country, besides two daughters, one of whom never married but the other married Mr. Gosnecht, whose two children live near Cincinnati. He having died, she again married a man at Seymour, Indiana. This old Napoleonic and Revolutionary veteran lived between the old Samie Wood's farm and Withamsville, where he died about 1850, nearly one hundred years old. The barrel of his old gun, which he carried in the campaigns of Napoleon in Germany and Italy, is in the possession of his son, George, in Batavia township, while the son, Philip, at Cherry Grove, has a paper discharge in French signed by the great Napoleon, testifying to Fishback's brave soldierly qualities, and recounting the many battles in which he participated, Ref. Militia and with Capt Jabez Gregory's Company 1777. Given land grant on Western Reserve. He Married Ann Cooke (1740-1814); Children: Jedidia, ,Halmon Hannah, William, Daniel, Grant Z & David. Mahoning Dispatch, Fri, 2 July 1897, Article No. 24, by Dr. Jackson Truesdale Excerpt from biographical sketch of Cook Fitch: "Editor Dispatch:-The Fitch family is one of interest not only to the people of Canfield, but of Ellsworth, Boardman, Warren and other towns who were favored by the early settlement among them by members of this notable family. The Fitches trace their origin in America back to 1638 when the brothers Thomas and James arrived from England. From the first the family occupied an enviable position among the distinguished families of the colony of Connecticut. James, one of the emigrating brothers, was a learned and prominent clergyman and one of the original proprietors of the town or city of Norwalk, Conn. Cook and Zalmon Fitch, whom we propose to notice more especially, were sons of Haynes Fitch, whose uncle, Thomas Fitch, was for ten years governor of the colony of Connecticut, and while such, drew up the present existing charter of Yale College. The above-named Haynes Fitch, after a series of financial embarrassments, and when well advanced in years, emigrated to Boardman in 1804, his sons Jedediah, Daniel and David coming with him. His sons Cook and Zalmon had preceded him, settling in Canfield. Jedediah, after leaving Boardman, removed to Youngstown, thence to Vienna, and finally to Warren, where he was justice of the peace for 25 years. His last re-election took place when he was 83 years old. In 1832 he was elected a representative to the Ohio legislature. Daniel Fitch settled in Ellsworth, and, if Zalmon Fitch is correct, was the first settler in that township. David, the remaining brother, who came with his father, retained the home farm after the death of his parents. His state-colored residence in Boardman, west of the center, was a conspicuous landmark as long ago as I can remember. He Doed on August 11, 1815 and Buried at Canfield Village Cemetery, Section B-Row 2, Canfield, OH 44406. His Name is among 35 listed on a plaque "Veterans Interred in Canfield City and Township Cemeteries, Mahoning County, Ohio". Came fr Conn to Canfield, OH in 1802. FORSHEY (FORSHAY), THOMAS (Monroe County) [39.7280 -81.2694]

Born in 1750 Green County, PA. He served as an Ensign in the 8th Pennsylvania Regiment. He entered the recruiting service of the United States in the Spring of 1775, then in the spring of 1776 joined th 8th under Colonel Enos McCoy in a Company commanded by Captain John Wilson discharged with ill health in 1777. He stated that he was in the service for more than two years. His discharge was signed by a general (possibly General Matthew Hand). The discharge document has been lost. His only evidence of service is his statement and that of others serving with him. He Married Elizabeth__(1757-1832); children: Abraham, Charlott & Solomon. Thomas Forshey received $240 per year pension.
In 1832 when Thomas Forshey was applying for a pension for his service to the United States during the time of the revolution, he and others described his service generally as follows: "In the spring of 1775, he entered the recruiting service for the revolutionary actions of the Continental Army and acted as a recruiting officer at different places in Pennsylvania. In the spring of 1776, he received an Ensign commission and joined Mackay's Battalion at their rendezvous point near the mouth of Georges Creek, Fayette County, Pennsylvania. This battalion, which was authorized by the Continental Congress on July 11, 1776, was named after its commander Aeneas Mackay and used for frontier defense. Thomas Forshey was in the company commanded by Captain John Wilson. The battalion was assigned to General George Washington's main army on November 23, 1776, ordered to join the main army in Philadelphia on December 4, 1776, and was renamed the 8th Pennsylvania Regiment on January 1, 1777. Thomas Forshey was part of the winter march beginning on January 6, 1777 from western Pennsylvania to an encampment at Quibbletown, New Jersey (now New Market near Piscataway). This was a difficult march of over 300 miles with pack horses in mid-winter without tents and proper uniforms. Many deserted and many were forced to hunt for food. About one third were sick and 50 men died during the march including the top two commanders. During part of the March they were in the vicinity of Philadelphia. This battalion was in battles at Rahway, NJ during the Forage Wars and in the Battle of Bound Brook while Thomas Forshey was in the battalion. He was regularly discharged in the spring of 1777 due to health reasons."
He died on December 22, 1836 and buried at Sutherland Methodist Cemetery, 43358 Sandbar Road, Stafford, Franklin Township, Monroe County, OH 43784. Catherine Fedorchak, Monroe County, Ohio, Records, Vol. 3, pp. 32 & 34. Pennsylvania Archives, Fifth Series, Volume III, p. 317.

Ft. Laurens' Unknown Soldier (Tuscarawas County) [40.639586 -81.455061]

Although we don't know the names of five of the soldiers buried at the grounds of Fort Laurens they were more likely young men of the 13th Virginia but the 8th Pennsylvania Regiment is also possible both units were stationed here at the post when the attack at Ft. Laurens came by Indians under the direction of British forces who had been at war with the colonists for more than three years and determined to prohibit their movement westward from the Appalachians

Fort Laurens was built as a strategic location for staging an attack on the British at Fort Detroit during the American Revolution. The Americans completed the construction of Fort Laurens—named after Henry Laurens, president of the Continental Congress—in early December 1778. The fort was to serve three purposes. First, the Americans hoped to use Fort Laurens as a base to attack the British garrison located at Detroit. Second, it would hopefully deter American Indians loyal to the British from conducting raids against American settlers in eastern Ohio and western Pennsylvania. And finally, by offering protection to the neutral Christian Delaware, the Americans might convince them to forsake their neutrality and join the patriots' cause. However, the conditions at the fort were harsh during the winter, and McIntosh removed most of the American forces to Fort Pitt, leaving only about 150 men (from the 8th Pennsylvania Regiment and 13th Virginia Regiment) under the command of Colonel John Gibson. Fort Laurens was the only fort built in the Ohio Country during the Revolutionary War.

In total, 21 soldiers lost their lives at Fort Laurens after a handful of British soldiers and a couple hundred Wyandot, Mingo, Munsee, and Delaware warriors laid siege to the fort before it was abandoned in 1779 and 4 are unknown. Years later, part of the fort was demolished during the building of the Ohio and Erie Canal. Currently none of the original fort remains above ground, but the outline of the fort is visible. On August 2, 1779, Lt. Colonel Richard Campbell and his command of 73 men marched out of Fort Laurens-neither dismantling nor burning the fortifications. With this departure, the only fort built by The Continental Congress in what is today the State of Ohio began its physical decline.

References for the four unknown soldiers is not possible, but their records should be very similar to the other 17 we do know; For Example: [Muster Rolls, National Archives, Record Group 93, Washington, D.C. R,M, Gramly, Fort Laurens 1778-9, Pictorial Record of Excavations, Buffalo, N.Y. Hamilton J. Eckenrode, Compiler, Virginia Soldiers of the American Revolution, Volume 2]. The 5 unknown soldiers are denoted on the Bronze plaque in the memorial museum and included with the other 17 on the Marble Memorial Stone Monument. Fort Laurens Cemetery, 11067 Ft. Laurens Road, Bolivar, OH 44612. Another Granite stone with a SAR emblem has a summary of the massacre. SAR Ancestor # P-335815.

VA, also with Colonel's Regiment at Leesburg & Philadelphia. He married 1) Elizabeth __, 2) Mary __ ;children: #1 three, #2 John & Levi.
John Francis Rev. War pension Application: September 24, 1834 Ross Co. OH.
John Francis of said county, aged 74, declares when he was about 18 years old he volunteered for three months under Capt. John Luckett of the militia in Loudoun Co. VA. where he had been raised from the time he was 3 years old. He belonged to Col.

Chapman's regiment and marched from Leesburg about September to Philadephia, passing through Lancaster, and remained there and in the neighborhood while Gen. Washington was stationed near Philadelphia. He served three months and received a discharge and returned home to his family in Loudoun County.
Some time afterward he was drafted for three months under Capt. Thomas Cannon. He proceeded through Fredericksburg to Yorktown. At the time he was drafted he had recently married. He obtained a discharge a few weeks prior to the capture of Cornwallis and returned to family in Loudoun Co. where he remained until he removed to Ohio.
Attached testimonials by Jonathan Hall Francis, and Susannah Wyckoff.
Jonathan Hall Francis: 24 Sept. 1834, Ross Co. Ohio. Jonathan (X) Francis of said county, aged 60, declares he has been acquainted with John Francis about 56 years and believes him to be 74 years of age and knows he was a soldier of the Revolution.
Susannah Wyckoff: 19 Sept. 1834, Eagle Twp. Ross
Susannah (X) Wyckoff declares John Francis volunteered and went out and was gone three months in service as a soldier. In 1781 he was called again on a second time. She was living about his house at the time he started and continued there during his absence and was there when he returned home.

FRANCIS, WILLIAM (Muskingum County) [40.01534 -82.18625]

Born on January 28, 1763 in Loudoun County, Virginia to John Francis and Ann Williams. He served as a Private with the Virginia Militia Continental Troops in the Revolutionary War. He Married Mary Romine (1769-1840) on February 6, 1787; children: Sarah Ann b. 1790, William Jr. b. 1792, Rebecca b. 1794, Alfred b. 1796, Samuel b. 1798, Isaiah b. 1799, Frances W. b. 1800, Stephen b. 1801, Thomas b. 1803, James b. 1804, Levin b. 1805, Demsey b. 1808, Evert b. 1810, Mariah b. 1811, Joseph b. 1814,

Mary Ann b. 1816, Fannie b. 1818 and Lenin b. 1820. William Francis was of an old colonial family and was a soldier in the Revolutionary War. He was present at the surrender of Lord Cornwallis to Admiral de Grasse, in Yorktown, Virginia on October 19, 1781. William was only18 at the time. William married in his native state to Miss Mary Romine and it is said that they were the parents of 24 children, 16 of them lived to manhood and woman hood. It is also said that they were four sets of twins among the 24 children, but wehave no record of four sets being born to them. We have uncovered one set, the others we have not. William and Mary were both charter members of the Beulah Primitive Baptist church. He served as deacon for forty years or more. They emigrated here from Louden County, VA. in the year 1816 and located in Licking County, Ohio, near the Muskingum County line, and erected a log house just north of the spring homestead. It is said to have been the first house to be lathed and plastered in Licking county. Their chimneys were built of sticks and plastered inside and out with clay mud seasoned with chaff to hold the mud from falling out. William purchased 350 acres of land from Daniel Shadley, who had emigrated from the same county in Virginia three of four years before when they used greased paper for window glass. He died on May 24, 1847 at 84 years of age in Licking County and buried at Behlah Cemetery, 4550 College Hill Road, Muskingum County, OH 43830. Ref: Notes from the Varner Family Tree. FRANTZ, ADAM, (Tuscarawas County) [40.474 -81.426]

Born on September 6, 1755 Lancaster Co, PA, 1755. Served as a Sergeant in Colonel Lord's Regiment in 1777, was at battle of Ft Washington and Trenton. He Married Sallie Shirk; children: Martha, Hannah, Mary, Sarah, Adam, John, & David.
Rev. War Pension Application, State of Ohio, Tuscarawas County:
On the fourth day of August A. D. One Thousand Eight hundred and thirty four, personally appeared before the Court of Commonpleas for said County of Tuscarawas, Adam Frantz, a resident of Dover Township in the County of Tuscarawas and State of Ohio, aged seventy eight years on the sixth day of September last past, as near as he can ascertain, who being first duly sworn according to law, doth, on his Oath make the following declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the provisions made by the Act of Congress passed June 7, 1832.
That he volunteered as a private soldier into the service of the United States in the commencement of the revolutionary war, under the command of Captain Jones; That he lived at that time in Lancaster County and State of Pennsylvania; That from old age and loss of memory, he is not able to state the year in which he volunteered as aforesaid, but recollects well that it was during the time in which, from general report, Gen. Howe was threatening the City of New York; That he marched under the command of Capt, Jones aforesaid, and Col. Peter Grubb to Philadelphia, where he remained under those officers nearly two months, for which time he had volunteered; That he thinks for the above service he received no discharge, nor does he now recollect whether that service was full two months or a shorter period; That sometime after harvest when under those officers near Philadelphia a call was made for volunteers to form a flying camp, and that on that occasion he volunteered for four months, among troops which were then called the "flying camp"; That his company was then commanded by Capt. Henry Hausbright, his regiment by Col. John Klotts and that Gen. Magaw was their Superior Officer; That he was at the Battle before Fort Washington under Gen. Magaw, when said fort was taken by the British, and was among those who made their escape from the Island in boats, at the time the battle and the fort were lost, and where he thinks, Gen. Magaw was taken prisoner; That Gen. Hughes was afterwards their commanding officer, under whom said Col. Klott and Lieutenant Witman he served, retreating from Fort Lee, until they crossed the Delaware River at Trenton; That he was at the battle of Trenton on Christmas Day, where the American Troops defeated the British, and took, as he recollect, 935 Hessian prisoners, besides their wounded; That he remained under said officers at Trenton, as he thinks, until New Years day after said Battle, when the last mentioned four months for which he had volunteered terminated and he was honorably discharged; That at that time he received a written discharge signed by Lieutenant William Witman; That he did not consider that said discharge could or would ever be of any service to him, and that he carried it in his jacket pocket until it was worn to pieces and lost; That then he returned to his house in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania.

That the following fall, about seeding time, when news came to Lancaster County, his place of residence, that Gen. Howe was approaching the City of Philadelphia with his Army, he (deponent] was drafted as a Militia man, to serve a tour of two months; That he joined a Regiment at Lancaster under the command of Col. Lord, but whose given name he does not recollect; That the name of his Captain was George Fetter and that they marched from Lancaster to the army of Gen. Washington, whom they joined a few days after the Battle of Brandywine; That the Regiment in which he served was placed under the command of Gen. Hile, and stationed on Barren Hill, after they has crossed the Schuylkill River, as deponent thinks, about two or three miles from Philadelphia; That during the remainder of the time of service, he remained at Barren Hill under said officers, and was in a small skirmish with a detachment of British Troops, who wanted to take some fire wood from the neighborhood of the American encampment; That at the termination of the said two months (during which he had served in the capacity of first Sergeant in his company) he was again discharged. He received at the time a written discharge signed by Capt. George Fetter which was lost in the same manner in which he has related that his first discharge was lost. and that he again returned to his residence in Lancaster County, aforesaid. That about one year afterwards, as he thinks between harvest and seeding time, he was again drafted as a private Militia man, to serve a tour of two months; That his commanding officer was Col. Hover and his Captains name was Barney Gardner; That he marched from Lancaster County under those officers to Sunbury and then to the frontier, which they guarded against the Indians about the neighborhood of Shamokin, and that during the said term of two months he was in no battle nor skirmish; That he was discharged on the frontier and had a written discharge signed by Captain Gardner, which was lost by him in the same manner his other two before mentioned discharges were lost. He hereby relinquishes every claim whatever to a pension or an annuity except the present, and he declares, that his name is not on the pension role of any agency in any state. However he was issued Ref. S8521 subsequent to an application Dated August 4, 1834. He Died in 1836, inTuscarawas County and buried at an unknown cemetery. Ref : Natl No 55635, p 287, Vol 56, D. A. GAYLORD, JUSTUS, (Delaware Co.) [40.195 -82.894]

Born in 1732. Served through Revolutionary War from Litchfield, Conn. He married Elizabeth; children : Samuel, Joseph, Walter, John & Nicholas. Justus Gaylord from Norwich, commenced a settlement in Springfield, on the Wyalusing, before Indian hostilities began, but was obliged to removed down the river, to the more densely populated country. When the independent companies were raised, two of his sons, Justus and Ambrose, enlisted in that of Capt. Ransom, and served during the war. On return of peace, the old gentleman and his son, Justus, resumed their possession of Wyalusing. While Ambrose established himself at Braintrim. He married Eleanor Comstock, from Norwich, West Farms. (History of Wyoming, by Miner, Appendix XLVI). "Justus, as we have seen, was one of those who petitioned the same time as his father, 12 May 1757, for town privileges at Norfolk, CT. His name also appears in a deed drawn in 1766. In the old history of Norfolk we read: 'A.D. 1768, Miles Riggs came to Norfolk, and Justus Gaylord lived at the old house near or on the ground where Mr. Atkins lives; house now standing;' 'Miles Riggs thinks he had been told that Samuel Gaylord, the father of Justus Gaylord, had lived in a house a little west of the highway near the grist mill bridge. Thinks the Watsons bought said Justus Gaylord's property.' Justus Gaylord was one of the earliest settlers in the Wyoming Valley, PA. He was in the company captured by Plunkett in his raid upon Wyoming in 1775, and lodged in the Sunbury jail. Soon after his release he is believed to have come to Wyalusing, living for a short time on the flats below the present village, near where the railroad crosses the line between the old Welles and Stalford estates, although the reference could pertain to his son, Justus Jr. Returning to Wyoming after the revolution, they remained in the lower valley until their house and effects were swept away in the great ice flood of 1784. The family narrowly escaping with their lives. Soon after this disaster they moved up to Wyalusing. Justus Sr. owned 1200 acres of land in the old Connecticut town of Springfield, now Wyalusing. 300 of which were on the west side of the river in Frenchtown or Lower Asylum, where Richard Gilbert afterwards lived. The deed for the purchase of this latter acreage is recorded at Wilkes-Barre. Daniel Shaw of the State of Pennsylvania, for a consideration of 20 (pounds), received from Justus Gaylord of said county, conveys lot 14, surveyed by John Jenkins, in Shawsborough twp.; lot begins at the lower end of a place called by the name of Shuefeltts Flatt on the Susquehanna river, 100 rods wide, and running back so far as to contain 300 acres; dated 24 February 1790. Lots 20 and 21 in Springfield (now Hemets Ferry) had been purchased by Perrin Ross of Plymouth, and sold to Justus Gaylord 28 May 1777, on which it is likely his sons lived previous to the battle of Wyoming. As their names are on the Springfield list, the accuracy of which is testified to by Justus Jr., the deed dated 28 May 1777, as already noted, says Perin Ross, Lt., of Plymouth District, in the town and county of Westmoreland, and state of Connecticut, for a consideration of 200 (pounds), paid by Justus Gaylord of the same place, conveys land in Springfield, being Lott 20 and 21 bounded on north by line of said town, west by Susquehanna, same was surveyed and laid out by Samuel Gordon, together with 1/2 right in Susquehanna Purchase, granted by Zebulon Butler, Esq., (one of the committee appointed to dispose of rights in said purchase) to John Thompson of Juniatta, and conveyed by said Thompson to Thomas Wigton, and from said Wigton to Phineas Pearce, and from Pearce to Perin Ross, as per record. They moved to Delaware Co., OH before 1810. He Died in 1820, Delaware Co, OH. Ref: No 70737, p 265. Vol 71, D. A. R. Lin. SAR Ancestor # P-165032. DAR# A043822. Gravesite unknown.
